NY Rehabilitation Agency Cited for Aid to Disabled

NEW YORK (JTA)—The Altro Health and Rehabilitation Services, an affiliate of the Federation of Jewish Philanthropies of New York, helped 2,281 patients during its fiscal year of July 1963 to July 1964, the agency reported this week.

The agency received a citation of merit from the National Association of Sheltered Workshops and Homebound Programs, Inc., which lauded the agency for leadership "in the development of work programs for the disabled."

Altro Work Shops, a subsidiary of the agency, offers on-the-job training and work adjustment skills through medical, social, psychological and vocational services. Of the 2,281 patients, 411 were aided by the Work Shops.

Resting Place for Torah
Rabbi Hanina bar Idi said: "Why are the words of the Torah likened unto water (Isa. 55:1)?" The answer is: just as water forsakes a high place and travels to a low one, just so do the words of Torah find a resting place only in a man of humble spirit.

Rabbi Oshaya said: "Why are the words of the Torah likened to water, wine and milk (Isa. 55:1)?" The answer is: Just as these liquids are kept only in the simplest of vessels, so the holy words are preserved only in the man of humble spirit.—Ta'anit.

The proud man is not loved even in his own household.—Baba Batra.
